

Native Pollinator Plants By USDA Farm Resource Region

Want to begin growing your own pollinator garden in your community? Locate your USDA Farm Resource Region on the map and learn which pollinator-attracting plants are native to your region!

 Snap a picture of your native pollinator plants and share using #PollinateAmerica

Northern Crescent

Michigan lily

Wild bergamot

Panicledleaf ticktrefoil

Eastern Uplands

Blue wild indigo

Butterfly milkweed

Cup plant

Southern Seaboard

Virginia bluebells

Dense blazing star

Purple coneflower

Fruitful Rim

Sulfur-flower buckwheat

California poppy

Carolina rose

Heartland

Red columbine

Cardinal flower

Common milkweed

Mississippi Portal

Red columbine

Lanceleaf blanketflower

Blue aster

Prairie Gateway

Foxglove beartongue

Texas bluebonnet

Prairie blazing star

Northern Great Plains

Showy milkweed

Blacksamson echinacea

Maximilian sunflower

Basin and Range

Utah sweetvetch

Snowy milkweed

Rocky Mountain beeplant