Question4: Please continue and expand the CRP program. As a pheasant hunter and other species, this program has enhanced the environmental conditions that supports all wildlife for all interested in the out-of-doors. It is also an economic boost in the communities where the CPR program exists. I cannot express myself too strongly as a supporter of this very successful farm program.

Signed: Robert W. Moenart

Question5: The CPR program brings in considerable economic support in those small communities where the program brings in hunters and environmentalists that otherwise would not visit and spend in these small town areas.
