Question1: If we were getting parity pricing on agricultural goods, there wouldn't be any barriers to entry.

Question2: After we take care of domestic markets set at "parity", then we worry about global markets.

Question3: Give us parity pricing and it'll be fair.

Question4: let the farmer decide what's best and screw the WTO!

Question5: Give tghe farmer parity pricing, and the rest will follow.....

Question6: Give us parity pricing, and it'll fix itself.
