Question2:

Question3:

Question4: Natural Resource Stewardship:

The aquifer under the major central portion of the United States, created during the last ice age processes, will not last forever. Please institute a ground watering mandate and eliminate aerial watering. The benefits are obvious, and, maybe, the sorely depleted supply will last just a bit longer.

Question5:

Question6: Let America know that they are not eating anything close to a healthy diet. Return to Nature. Educate. Promote fresh, wholesome fruits and vegetables as a diet mainstay. Afterall, marketing techniques got us to believe in lies, such as "Milk Does a Body Good." Try telling the truth.
