Question1: Start with offering lower cost loans to the farmers to gain land much like the VA does for vets

Question2: Develop a fuel tax credit for the transportation to the market to global markets thus keeping the price lower with less transportation cost

Question3: Do not change anything

Question4: Keep the CRP program as is it has the long term positive effects for the future of conservation and wildlife. As well as helping the rural America with guarantee payments. Also it keep insurance costs down as if you have disaster the cost out would be less due to less land in crops.

Question5: Help them understand business so that they can be better prepared for different economic cycles

Question6: There needs to be a marketing campaign developed by both government and private industry so that people are more aware of the benefits of new products
