Question1: For several generations, our family is engaged in agri. The relief the farming business gets from the tax payers now is sick. They are building million homes, tax payers are paying for, cost of convenience on farm machinery, diesel pickups, farm land not capable of not producing anything, is on the tax payers gift list. Farmers can make it on their own without these handouts. They can rid themselves of their vacation homes and do some of their own work. I am very much aware of the farming industry and its dependency upon the tax payers.
