Question1: Yes, there are many unintended consequences: price of land, obesity and other costly health problems, most of the money goes to the large farmers. Public discussion on this subject is needed.

Question2: Before I buy the "Globalization of Agriculture" idea, I would like to see an analysis of the costs of transportation on Global production of food vs. consumption of local production.

Question3: I am a farmer. I think the best farm policy for the small producer would be no assistance to farmers. Let's not compete for assistance but by producing healthy products in such a way to best conserve the environment.
