Question1:

Question2: America needs to make farmers treat their livestock better to compete with foreign markets as global markets do. America needs to eliminate crates that are too restrictive for animal wellbeing and comfort for pregnant sows and veal calves and battery cages for laying hens.

Question3: Farm policy should assist only farmers who treat their animals humanely, allowing them space for normal behavior

Question4: Factory farming should be eliminated as it tends to pollute the environment and not allow sufficient room for animal normal behavior

Question5: Government should give small farms, practicing humanely tax assistance and invest in technologies which would help make farming more remunerative.

Question6:
