Question2:

Question3: NRCS operations should return to more locally specific assistance needed and away from the current program driven operations.

Question4: One area the Farm Bill might be useful is finding some way to effectively use the chips remaining from fuel reduction projects. The Ely BLM District has a huge pile of chips that they can't hardly pay anybody to take and I understand the biggest problem for local FireWise Councils is disposal of the fuel removed. Perhaps some organized collection and use of this fuel even from areas remote?

Question5: Keep the RC&D program thriving.
