

From: "bpwasserman@jhu.edu%inter2" <bpwasserman@jhu.edu>
Subject: Farm Bill 2007 Official Comments - 12/26/2005 04:46 PM CST
Date Sent: 12/26/2005 04:46:16 CST
Date Received: 12/26/2005 04:47:59 CST

Email: bpwasserman@jhu.edu

FirstName: Barbara

LastName: Wasserman

Address1: 13200 Triadelphia Road

Address2:

City: Ellicott City

State: Maryland

zipcode: 21042

Question1:

Question2:

Question3: Help the small farmer not the very wealthy farmers and the large corporations that have bought up so much of U.S. farmland. Latter also exert excessive control over the small farmers with whom they have contracts to raise poultry (e.g. Perdue, Tyson)using very cruel conditions. Devise programs that help the small farmers and encourage them to use humane methods for raising animals destined for human consumption.

Question4: Encourage and train farmers to raise their products using methods that do not use pesticides, antibiotics and hormones. These methods will ensure improved health of people and the environment.

Question5: See response to question 4 above. Also it would be important to educate the American public that avoiding the use of the chemicals cited in question 4 may raise the price of food but will ensure that both people and the environmental will be healthier as a results.

Question6: