

Committed to the future of rural communities.

- Improving the quality of life of all rural Americans
- Increasing economic opportunity in rural America

Bush Administration Investments

Invested over $76 Billion in six years – Creating or Saving over 1.5 million jobs

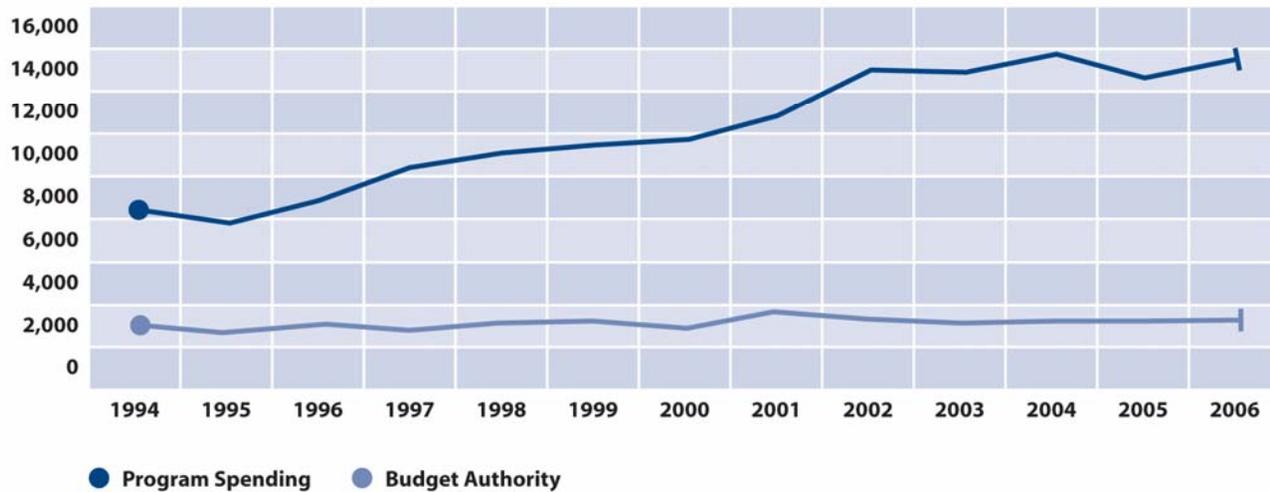

Through the delivery of over 40 Rural Development Programs:

- Housing
- Utilities
- Business

Investments Trends

ACTUAL PROGRAM SPENDING AND BUDGET AUTHORITY

Rural Housing Programs

$24.7 Billion – 353,000 single-family homes

$1.7 Billion - 3,537 fire, rescue, and public safety vehicles, buildings, equipment

$1.28 Billion – Healthcare facilities Serving 8.2 million rural residents and providing telemedicine capabilities to 2,226 rural health institutions.

Rural Utilities Programs

$22 Billion - Electric

- Over 1 million new customers receiving electric service

$9.1 Billion - Community Infrastructure

- Over 7,403 water/wastewater projects

$5.7 Billion - Telecommunications

- Over 1.9 million new broadband capable subscribers

Broadband in Rural America

EXISTING BROADBAND
ACCESS COVERAGE IN
THE UNITED STATES

Number of Providers

Access to over 40 Percent of rural America

Rural Business and Cooperative Programs

$5.9 Billion -- Business Loans

$482.1 Million – renewable energy/energy efficiencies – over 1,000 projects. Leveraged $1.5 billion in private investments.

2007 Farm Bill

Rural Development

- Consolidate Rural Development programs to increase flexibility and efficiency
- Provide $1.6 billion in loans to complete the rehabilitation of all 1,283 certified rural Critical Access Hospitals

2007 Farm Bill

Rural Development

- Provide an additional $500 million to reduce the backlog of rural infrastructure projects.
 - Water/wastewater loans and grants
 - Emergency water assistance grants
 - Community Facilities loans and grants – first responders
 - Distance learning and telemedicine grants

2007 Farm Bill

Energy

- Provide $500 million for rural alternative energy and energy efficiency grants
- Provide $2.1 billion in loan guarantees to support cellulosic ethanol projects in rural areas
- Provide $150 million for biomass research competitive grants, focusing on cellulosic ethanol
- Provide $500 million to create a Bioenergy and Bioproducts Research program

Summary

- USDA Rural Development is the leading Advocate for rural America
- USDA Rural Development has an unmatched program distribution system

