

United States Department of Agriculture

Growing Healthy Food, People and Communities

CHEF IN THE GARDEN

At The People's Garden

Learn Healthy Cooking Techniques with Garden Favorites

Fridays at The People's Garden 12:00 Noon to 1 p.m., Rain or Shine

Where: USDA People's Garden, 12th & Jefferson, SW, Washington, DC

Metro: Mall exit of the Smithsonian Metro Station, Orange/Blue Lines

Cooking Demonstration Schedule 2009

August 28 - Minted Cucumber and Tomato Salad with Sodexo

September 4 – Chef Carlton Crockett & students, International Culinary School at the Art Institute, DC with Share our Strength

September 11 – Chef Dan Traster, Culinary Director for Metropolitan Cooking & Entertaining Show & author of “Welcome to Cooking School: A Culinary Student Survival Guide” with Share Our Strength

September 18 – Chefs Monica Thomas, Mitch Greene & Carole Warren, Operation Frontline volunteer chef instructors & members of the U.S. Personal Chef Association's Capital Area chapter with Share Our Strength

September 25 – Chef Allison Sosna of DC Central Kitchen's Fresh Start Catering

October 2 – Volunteer chef team from the Capital Area Food Bank's Operation Frontline Program with Share Our Strength

October 9 – Chef Susan Ciriello & culinary students from the International Culinary School at the Art Institute of Washington, DC with Share Our Strength

October 16 – Chefs Dawain Arrington and Michael Robb with DC Central Kitchen

October 23 – Chef Tim Miller of Mie N Yu Restaurant with DC Central Kitchen culinary staff

October 30 – Chef Instructors Marianne Ali and Linda Vogler with DC Central Kitchen's 77th Culinary Job Training class

For the latest updates go to:

twitter.com/peoplesgarden

www.usda.gov/peoplesgarden

Garden tours: every Tuesday and Thursday 1 p.m.

* Except when thunder and lightning or other dangerous outdoor conditions exist