

Mary Bohman

Mary Bohman is Administrator of the Economic Research Service. Mary joined ERS in 1997 and has served in other leadership positions including as Director of the Agency's Resource and Rural Economics Division. From 1990 to 1997 she was on the Agricultural Sciences faculty at the University of British Columbia. Mary first worked in agriculture and rural development as a Peace Corps Volunteer for cooperative development in Togo, West Africa in the early 1980s. Mary received her Ph.D. from the Department of Agricultural Economics, University of California, Davis and her B.S. from the School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University.