

JOHN H. MILLER

John Miller was promoted to the position of group vice president, Agricultural Products, for BNSF Railway on Feb. 1, 2014. In this role, he leads a marketing team that specializes in meeting the needs of whole grain, grain products, fertilizer, ethanol and bulk foods shippers.

John joined BNSF in March 2008 as assistant vice president, Agricultural Products. He was named vice president, Industrial Products Sales, in November 2012, after serving as assistant vice president of that group since November 2011.

Before joining BNSF in 2008, Miller had 25 years of experience in the US grain industry. He began his career with Continental Grain Company (CGC) as a merchandising trainee in 1983 and went on to be named vice president in 1991. Miller later joined Bartlett and then Scoular Grain in various management roles.

Education

- Bachelor of Arts in economics, Harvard University
- Advanced Management Program, Harvard University

Personal

John, and his wife, Daveen, live in Southlake, Texas. They have four children.

BNSF

BNSF Railway is one of North America's leading freight transportation companies operating on 32,500 route miles of track in 28 states and two Canadian provinces. BNSF is one of the top transporters of consumer goods, grain and agricultural products, low-sulfur coal, and industrial goods such as petroleum, chemicals, housing materials, food and beverages. BNSF's shipments help feed, clothe, supply, and power American homes and businesses every day. BNSF and its employees have developed one of the most technologically advanced and efficient railroads in the industry. We work continuously to improve the value of the safety, service, energy, and environmental benefits we provide to our customers and the communities we serve.