Order

Respondent New Wilmington Livestock Auction, Inc. and respondent Thomas R. Skelton, their agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with their operations subject to the Act, shall cease and desist from:

1. Engaging in business subject to the Act while insolvent, i.e. while current liabilities exceed current assets;
2. Failing to properly maintain their Custodial Account for Shippers' Proceeds in strict conformity with the Act and section 201.42 of the regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42); and
3. Using funds received from the sale of consigned livestock for any purpose other than those specifically permitted by section 201.42(d) of the regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42(d)).

Pursuant to 7 U.S.C. § 204, respondent New Wilmington Livestock Auction, Inc. is suspended as a registrant under the Act for a period of 14 days and thereafter until respondent New Wilmington Livestock Auction, Inc. has demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Packers and Stockyards Program, that the custodial account shortages in respondent New Wilmington Livestock Auction, Inc.'s custodial account and respondent New Wilmington Livestock Auction, Inc.'s insolvency have been corrected. After the expiration of the initial 14 day suspension period, and provided that respondent New Wilmington Livestock Auction, Inc. demonstrates that its custodial account shortages have been corrected and that its current liabilities no longer exceed its current assets, upon application to the Packers and Stockyards Program, a supplemental order may be issued terminating the suspension.

Respondent Thomas R. Skelton is prohibited from being registered under the Act for a period of 14 days. Pursuant to section 303 of the Act, respondent Thomas R. Skelton is prohibited from carrying on the business of a market agency or dealer without being registered. After the 14 day suspension period, respondent Thomas R. In accordance with section 312(b) of the Act (7 U.S.C. Sec. 213(b)), the respondents are further assessed, jointly and severally, a civil penalty in the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00). However, this civil penalty will be held in abeyance provided that respondents are in compliance with the terms of this Consent Decision and Order. It is within GIPSA's sole discretion to determine whether respondents are in compliance with the terms of this Consent Decision and Order. If GIPSA determines that respondents are not in compliance with the terms of this Consent Decision and Order, GIPSA may petition the ALJ to order the twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) civil penalty held in abeyance to become effective immediately without further procedure. If GIPSA has not petitioned the ALJ to order the twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) civil penalty against respondents within one-year from the effective date of this consent decision and order, the civil penalty will be extinguished.

The provisions of this Order shall become effective on the sixth day after service of this order on the respondents.

Copies of this decision and order shall be served upon the parties.
