ORDER CERTIFYING TRANSCRIPT

Appearances:

On Behalf of the U.S. Department of Agriculture:

Rupa Chilukuri, Esq., and Tracy McGowan, Esq., Trial Attorneys, Office of the General Counsel, United States Department of Agriculture; and Melissa Schmaedick, Senior Marketing Specialist, Agricultural Marketing Service ("AMS"), United States Department of Agriculture.

On Behalf of the California Walnut Board:

Michelle Connelly, Executive Director, California Walnut Board.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 553 and notices published in the Federal Register,¹ a hearing on proposed amendments to the marketing order that regulates the handling of walnuts grown in California, Federal Marketing Order No. 984 (7 C.F.R. § 984), was held remotely via ZOOM audio-video conferencing system on April 20 and 21, 2020.²

On May 7, 2020, the Agricultural Marketing Service ("AMS") filed proposed corrections to the record transcript of the hearing, which it states incorporate the proposed corrections of the California Walnut Board. No other proposed corrections have been filed or otherwise received from any participant, and no objections have been raised as to the proposed corrections. Upon my review those proposed corrections, except where changes from the proposed changes are noted parenthetically, are hereby ADOPTED, as follows:

¹ Walnuts Grown in California; Hearing on Proposed Amendment of Marketing Order No. 984, 85 Fed. Reg. 7669 (Feb. 11, 2020); Walnuts Grown in California; Hearing on Proposed Amendment of Marketing Order No. 984; Correction, 85 Fed. Reg. 20202 (Apr. 10, 2020).

² The online hearing location was at <https://www.zoomgov.com/s/1601790781>.

³ The proposed correction to page 182, line 16, did not match the text appearing at that place in the transcript, or in nearby text not otherwise corrected.

I hereby certify that to the best of my knowledge and belief, the transcript of the testimony given during the hearing is a true rendition of the testimony, except for any remaining obvious or immaterial spelling and any typographical or grammatical errors, and with the corrections as adopted hereinabove.⁷

I further certify that the record includes the following exhibits,⁸ which were each received into evidence at the indicated transcript page, as follows, and that these exhibits are all of the exhibits as introduced at the hearing:
