Conclusions

The Respondents having admitted the jurisdictional facts and the parties having agreed to the entry of this decision, such decision will be entered.

Order

Respondents Mount Airy Stockyard, Inc., Venancio Torres, and Deborah Torres, their agents and employees, directly or indirectly through any corporate or other device, shall cease and desist from: (1) Failing to timely remit proceeds to consignors; (2) Failing to properly maintain and use their custodial account; and (3) issuing insufficient funds checks.

In accordance with section 312(b) of the Act (7 U.S.C. §213(b)), the respondents are further assessed, jointly and severally, a civil penalty of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00). Six thousand dollars ($6,000) shall be immediately due and payable. The remaining nine thousand dollars ($9,000) of the civil penalty shall be held in abeyance for a period of one year from the effective date of this Consent Decision. If the Respondents fail to comply with any of the terms of this consent decision during the period of abeyance, the full civil penalty shall be reinstated and any remaining balance of the civil penalty will become immediately due and payable. This Consent Decision, however, will not limit the civil penalties for any violations of the Act not addressed in the allegations of the complaint in this matter. Respondent expressly waives any further appearance or procedure with respect to action in this case.

Respondents are also prohibited from operating in any capacity requiring registration under the Act for a period of one hundred and thirty-five (135) days and thereafter until they demonstrate full compliance with the Act and the implementing regulations. After expiration of the initial one hundred and thirty-five (135) day period, provided respondents demonstrate full compliance with the Act and the implementing regulations, upon application to the Packers and Stockyards

Program, a supplemental order may be issued in this proceeding terminating the prohibition.

This Order shall have the same force and effect as if entered after full hearing. The provisions of this order shall become effective on the sixth day after service of this consent decision and order on the respondents.

Copies of this decision shall be served upon the parties.
