

Michael Ward
Senior Agricultural Attaché
Office of Agricultural Affairs
U.S. Embassy – Beijing

Michael Ward is the U.S. Department of Agriculture/Foreign Agricultural Service (FAS)'s Senior Agricultural Attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Beijing, China. He arrived in Beijing in August 2017.

Mr. Ward joined FAS in 2007 and following assignments in the Office of Global Analysis and the Office of Scientific and Technical Affairs was granted entry into FAS's Foreign Service in 2010. Mr. Ward's first overseas tour was a year-long assignment as Agricultural Attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Kabul, Afghanistan. Following that assignment, he served at the U.S. Embassy in Hanoi, Vietnam from 2012-2016. Prior to joining FAS permanently, Ward was a FAS intern at the U.S. Mission to the European Union in Brussels. He is originally from Missouri and currently resides in Beijing with his wife and two children.