

Nancy Hale

Following 34 years as a teacher, career counselor, and administrative coordinator, Nancy Hale retired from public education in 2012 and joined Operation UNITE (Unlawful Narcotics Investigations, Treatment and Education) as Co-Program Director for the UNITE Service Corps (AmeriCorps) Program. In February 2015, she was named UNITE's third President & CEO. Ms. Hale currently serves on the advisory boards for the National Rx Drug Abuse & Heroin Summit and the Institute for the Advancement of Behavioral Healthcare. Very involved in her community, Ms. Hale has served as an Executive Board Member and volunteer with the Rockcastle County (KY) UNITE Coalition for the last 13 years and with the Kentucky YMCA Youth Association for 26 years. As a member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, Pi Chapter, Ms. Hale was named "Kentucky Volunteer of the Year" four times (1998, 1999, 2000 and 2004). She received the "Golden Apple Achiever Award" from Ashland Oil, Inc. in 2000 as one of Kentucky's outstanding educators. In 2001, she was chosen as the "Kentucky YMCA Champion," and was the first inductee into the Kentucky YMCA Youth Advisor Hall of Fame in 2010. Ms. Hale twice served as president of the Kentucky Association of Professional Educators.

She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree, Master of Arts in Education, and Rank I in Administration from Eastern Kentucky University. She and her husband, John, also an educator and principal for 45 years, are the parents of two grown sons and have three grandchildren.

She graduated magna cum laude from the University of Pennsylvania with a BA and MA in history. He served for five years on the Board of Directors of EarthShare, an environmental workplace giving consortium, and for two years as a political appointee to the Environmental Quality Advisory Council of Fairfax County (VA). He serves on the Board of New Futures (Washington, DC), advisory board of Scenic Virginia (Richmond), among other volunteer work. His personal pursuits include piano, photography, and outdoor adventures with his family.