TO: Regional Directors

State Directors
 CSFP State Agencies and Indian Tribal Organizations

In alignment with Agriculture Secretary Brooke Rollins’ priorities to encourage healthy choices, healthy outcomes, and healthy families and connect America’s farmers to nutrition assistance programs, the USDA Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) is revising the CSFP Maximum Monthly Distribution Rates to reflect the foods currently available in the program.

These revised guide rates, outlined in Attachment A, will be effective on September 1, 2025 and remain in effect until further notice. There are no changes to the maximum amounts of foods that may be distributed in each food package category. CSFP State agencies should use the guide rates in conjunction with the latest CSFP Foods Available List, linked at the CSFP homepage.

Thank you for your commitment to providing one of our nation’s most vulnerable populations with nutritious, minimally processed American grown and produced foods to support their health and well-being.
